Profile

I am a philomath currently pursuing my under graduation in computer science and engineering. I have prior hands-on experience in Full stack Development using HTML5 , CSS , Bootstrap , JAVA , JSP , JDBC , PHP. I am a self learner. I never know what's the next thing I would be interested in but what I do know is that I would totally give my best for it. Currently I am focused on learning node.js , angular js , react etc.
